ATLANTA, GEORGIA, SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1888.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

THE NARROW ESCAPE
Made by the Democrats From a Republican Trap.

MR. MILLS COMES TO THE RESCUE.

The Members Scatter Out and Give the Republicans a Chance to Trip Them—Other News.WASHINGTON, July 6.—[Special.]—The democrats in the house almost got caught this afternoon through their want of care.
Many of them had been seated from the house, and others were seated on sofas and in the chairs. The Republicans to a considerable number were on hand.Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, offered an amendment striking out all of the sugar and molasses paragraphs and inserting clauses fixing the duties as follows: Sugars not above No. 16 United States composition, and molasses not above 36 degrees not otherwise provided for are to be exempt from duty, in the event that no export duty is imposed.Sugars above No. 16 are to pay a duty of 3-10 of one cent. Molasses above 36 degrees, two cents per gallon. Maple sugar two cents per pound on crystallized sugar containing 50 per cent sugar. Beets sugar one cent per pound. Sugar candy, not colored, five cents per pound. All other confectionery not enumerated and not being refined, when thickened or otherwise prepared for export duty, ten cents per pound. [With a sugar provision, aga, not an export duty.] It is also provided that to encourage domestic production, there shall be paid a bounty to the United States on sugar produced in the United States.The chairman took a long time to count, while the pages were sent out to bring in the members, but when the count was delayed as long as could be, they had only 64 voted against the amendment. This called for applause by the republicans and chaffing of Mr. Mills by Mr.
Beard.The democratic leaders did not relish this, and called for a count by tellers, at the same time calling in every direction for absent members. Eighty-one were found, and as the republicans could only muster seventy-six the amendment was defeated.In speaking of the chances of democratic success in the coming campaign and the probability of New York, Indiana, New Jersey and Connecticut again going democratic, a New York member was heard to say today that the remark commonly heard among politicians that New York, Indiana, and Connecticut were to be won over to the democratic cause.Mr. Funston, of Kansas, suggested that the farmer, who produced sorghum, would not be protected if sugar under No. 16 was admitted.Mr. Bayne, of Pennsylvania, spoke in support of the amendment and advocated the granting of bounties to sugar producers.Mr. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, said the agitation of the country was in a state of depression and just as that interest was beginning to be diversified by an inspection of the results of 1884, when all these states went democratic. This will show that in New York the change of one-half vote from the democratic to the republican's side in every thousand of the total poll will give the state to the republicans, and in Indiana a change of seven, in New Jersey of nine, and in Connecticut of five, will produce a like effect.Representative Timothy J. Campbell, of New York, scolds the idea of Daniel Dougherty being a candidate for congress from his (Campbell's) district. He says his people are not to be expected to vote, not even in the shape of a great crater. Great speeches don't make votes, he declares. Mr. Campbell is very confident of his own re-election. He says he has sent a great many other men to congress, and it would, in his opinion, be very remarkable if he couldn't send himself when he wanted to.The republican nominee for vice-president, Levi P. Morton, is having erected on the corner of Fifteenth and H streets, opposite Worley's hotel, a splendid eight story fire proof apartment house, costing several hundred thousand dollars. Should he be elected he will make himself with elegant apartments in this building, which is one of the handsomest in the city.The critic says: "Two sixty-two pound watermelons have been sent from Georgia to Mrs. Cleveland. Some republican down there is trying to remove the president, we'll wager a doctor's bill."Mr. Turner was one of eight members of the house who voted against the land grant forfeiture bill today. The remainder of the Georgia delegation, except Mr. Norwood, who was absent voted for the bill.Mr. Carlton returned from a visit to Georgia yesterday.Minister Lawton spent today here with his Georgia friends. He goes to New York tomorrow. E. W. B.

THE DAY IN THE HOUSE.

Passage of the Land Grant Furniture Bill—Death of the Tariff.WASHINGTON, July 6.—The speaker prepared before the house a message from the president, informing him that his bill, the bill to grant a pension to Gullie Welsh; also a communication from the light house board relating to the inadequacy of the appropriation for the light service in the study civil appropriation bill.Mr. Hatch, of Missouri, presented the report on the bill on the tariff, and the bill was sent up on all points of difference, except the senate amendment appropriating $100,000 for sorghum sugar experiments.The report was adopted and the conferees agreed to stand upon their disagreement to this amendment.The regular order was demanded, being the age and no vote on the passage of the land grant forfeiture bill, and the vote was taken, resulting ay, 177, nays 8, so the bill was passed.Mr. Belmont, of New York, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported the result of the inquiry into the case of John Curtis Kendall, of New York.Mr. Atkinson, of Pennsylvania, from the committee on the district of Columbia, reported the bill to punish public drunkenness in the streets.

The house went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill, the pending paragraph being that relating to iron or steel railway fish plates or splice bars.Mr. Buchanan's motion to strike out the provisions of the bill was agreed to.Mr. Payne, of Pennsylvania, made a similar motion with respect to the paragraph relating to spikes, horse shoes, etc., stating that the reporter derived from this source last year was lost.

The motion was lost.

The reading of the bill then progressed rapidly. Motions made on the report side to strike out of the paragraph being referred and generally without division and without division.Messrs. Farquhar, of New York; Adams, of Illinoian, and Wetzel, of Indiana, protested against a reduction of the duty on files and the imposition of an advalorem rate.Democrats refrained from replying, and upon a standing vote, Mr. Farquhar's amendment, increasing the size of files, prevailed by a vote of 61 to 61.Mr. Mills, however, demanded a reduction of the duty on lead ore, and the result was reversed—yeas 63, nays 70—and the amendment was rejected.

The Water Valley Disaster.

New Orleans, La., July 6.—A battery of boilers at tannery of A. J. Grotzingers, Allegheny City, exploded yesterday, wrecking several hundred and seriously injuring six persons.
The number of others, mostly employees, were slightly bruised and cut by being struck by flying debris.Engines were set in motion to draw out the mass of debris.

The explosion was lost between one and two hundred thousand dollars.

The remaining dynamite, when the wheel was turned, exploded. There were at least two caps used in cartridges, not having exploded.
